

A stack of old newspapers is shown from a high angle, slightly tilted. The top newspaper is the most prominent, with its masthead and a headline clearly visible. The masthead reads 'L'ÉCHO DE LA VILLE DE METZ' in large, bold, black letters. Below it, a headline in smaller black letters reads 'Les membres du Vainqueur du 14-18 IL FAUT CONCLURE UN TRAITE AVEC LES DEUX ALLEMANDS'. The stack of newspapers below is thick and shows the edges of many pages, some with faint text like 'A THIVIERD'. The entire image is framed by a thick red border. Overlaid on the top half of the image is the text 'L'écho des' in a large, red, cursive script font with a white outline and a drop shadow effect.
